

Top Colleges and Universities Contributing to Teach For America's 2011 Teaching Corps

Teach For America is the national corps of outstanding recent college graduates and professionals who commit to teach for two years in urban and rural public schools and become lifelong leaders in the effort to expand educational opportunity. During the 2010-11 academic year, Teach For America received a record 48,000 applications—the largest applicant pool in its history—from graduating seniors, graduate students, and professionals. This fall, more than 5,200 new corps members will start teaching in 43 regions across the country. They represent more than 1,500 colleges and universities, and 77 percent are 2011 graduates. The schools below are ranked by the number of graduates they contributed to the 2011 corps.*
